The Grip Interferes With a Social

Function-Illness of Dr. Williams. The wedding reception of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Moore was celebrated at the residence of the bride's parents —Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hitchcock—on Tuesday evening, June 13. There was a goodly number present to congratulate the newly married couple. But not as many came as was expected when the invitations were sent out, as the prevailing disease kept many away, not wishing to come out at night. Influenza is and has been for some time quite prevalent here, but is now gradually disappearing. It has seen its best days. We hope to see our Dr. Williams around soon, who has been ill with pneumonia for about three weeks. Dr. Moore, I think, will practice for a while. It is expected that the annexation club will get up the Fourth of July exercises this year at Hilo. Sailed from Hilo, June 10, brig

Hilo, June 15, 1893. MAYHEM BY A JAP.

He Bites Off a Native's Ear at Waimea, Hawaii.

Judge S. H. Mahuka, of Waimea, Hawaii, who is in town, received a letter from that place by this morning's mail, telling of a tussle be-tween a native and a Japanese, which ended sorely for the native. Races at the Land Office, Supreme Court Buildof some kind were in progress at 4 p. m. on June S. when Moses Koki and a Japanese quarreled and clinched in a catch-as-catch-can wrestle. The Jap threw Moses to the ground, but came down with him. If the Jap was the better man in a wrestle, he was not so in a box-ing match. Moses pummeled him vigorously while the men struggled prone in the dust. At length the Jap, stung into a violent rage, seized A Portuguese laborer met with an Moses by the ear with his teeth, accident this morning at the Hono- chewing off half or three-quarters of lulu Iron Works. ### THE ENGINEER SKIPS.

Commander Nelson is Put to Inconvenience by a Bluejacket.

Commander Nelson, of the U.S.S. Adams, came ashore from that vessel yesterday evening in a steam launch. After a brief visit ashore the commander returned to the boatlanding when he was told that Thomas Brannan, engineer on the launch, had taken French leave. The commander was left in a quandary. He reported the fact to the police, offering a reward of $10 for Brannan's apprehension, and sent a shore boat to the Adams for another engineer. The engineer soon arrived and the commander was conveyed on board.

Half an hour after the steamboat left Brannan was arrested by a native policeman, and this morning was returned to the ship.

OPIUM AT MAHUKONA.

Caught With Some.

When the steamer Kinau arrived at Mahukona this last trip a posse of police officers met passengers at the landing. Chinese passengers were searched for opium, but none was found. Among the passengers decorations were placed in effective was a native woman who acted positions. An effigy of the class pin in the college colors, buff and blue, were noticed by one of the police officers and he followed her up. She had a bundle in her hand which she endeavored to pass unnoticed. The man in blue stopped the woman and on opening the bundle found it to contain twenty-two tins of opium The woman was arrested. The stuff came from Honolulu.

Mishap to the Likelike.

A report was received by the steamer Kinau this morning of an accident to the steamer Likelike on Thursday morning, but which is not as serious as first given out. It was first reported that there was a hole knocked in the steamer's bottom. The steamer only struck near Kea-nae Point, Maui, and scraped her bottom. No serious injury was sus-The Likelike is ordered on the Marine Railway ahead of the Kinau in consequence of the accident.
